

MA416 Weekly Challenge 2

Give an example of an infinite commutative ring that is not an integral domain.

Please upload your answer to the Canvas "Challenge 2" assignment by Friday October 4. You do not need to type it (a photograph is fine). Explain your example as clearly as you can, so that it would be interesting and informative for a reader. Cite any sources that you use.